DAY 2 / Masai Mara Reserve

Day dedicated to safaris in the Masai Mara Reserve, which is the northern extension of Serengeti Park in Tanzania. The Masai Mara Reserve is located only 150 km North from the equator; it spans for 1500 square kms. at an altitude of 1500 m.

The Reserve is characterised by a vast slightly hilly savannah, with rare and small acacia woods, and it represents the habitat of a huge number of animals. Few places on earth support such high concentrations of animals and the Mara's wildebeest-spotted savannahs are undeniably the region's star attraction.

Here you will have the possibility to see very large zebras and wildebeests herds; indeed more than one million and a half herbivorous transit here during the big annual migration.

Furthermore, here there is the largest concentration of lions, cheetahs and leopards in all of Kenya.
Dinner and overnight stay in the lodge. (B.L.D.)
